

Dear fellow Republican Alaskans,

I am privileged to have had the opportunity to get to know Carmela Warfield over the past few years. During this time, I've come to admire her tenacity, compassionate demeanor, and insightful leadership qualities. These attributes undoubtedly equip Carmela to steer the Alaska Republican Party towards its best possible future.

Reflecting on the current landscape of our party, I am convinced that it's time to welcome Carmela and embrace her as a fresh perspective. She brings with her a wealth of experience in upholding the enduring values of conservatism. Moreover, Carmela has demonstrated her commitment to Alaska through both financial contributions and active participation in various Republican groups and clubs, including the esteemed MatSu and Valley Women Republican clubs. Her dedication extends to organizing numerous fundraisers to support Republican candidates statewide, as well as investing her time and resources in traveling across our vast state to ensure that all Alaskan Republicans are well represented.

What sets Carmela apart is her profound understanding of the diverse challenges and nuances facing Republicans from different regions of Alaska, whether it be Fairbanks, the Interior, MatSu, Ketchikan, or beyond. Recognizing and addressing these nuances is crucial for any leader of the ARP, as it ensures that the interests of all Republican Alaskans are effectively represented.

I eagerly anticipate lending my full support to Carmela and casting my vote for her as our new Alaska Republican Party chair. I am confident that under her leadership, our party will reach new heights and forge a stronger sense of unity through diligent work towards common conservative objectives. I welcome you to join me in endorsing and entrusting Carmela Warfield with this chairmanship position.

Sincerely,

Ryan Sheldon
